Sir,

I request you to include the following resolution in the Agenda of the meeting of 30th Academic Council to be held on 13-07-2022.

1. Resolved that the University to be requested to give exemption for appearing MOOC courses (it is zero credit) for the outgoing II Year PG students (2020-2022 batch) with a special consideration only this time or permit them to complete the course other than SWAYAM Portal without any constraints and it will be helpful to go through MOOC course.
2. Resolved that the University to be requested to arrange a Special campaign will be conducted for the disposal of Marks Statement/Provisional/Degree certificate of old students those who have not yet received till date.
3. Resolved that the University to be requested to expedite the process of PhD thesis reports received from the examiners and allow to conduct the viva-voce examination as early as possible. If any long pending cases due to non-receipt of reports from the examiners or non-availability of the examiners an alternative arrangements will be made for the welfare of the research scholars.
4. Resolved that the University to be requested to publish the results of III UG/ II PG courses only in TVU website and students can get it digital marks statement individually with their own username and password to pursue their higher education instead of producing gally results at the time of admission.
5. Resolved that the University to be requested to permit the NON-CBCS students (before 2008-2009) to reappear the examinations as a final chance.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely
